Document: Australian Tournament Regulations

Date: Monday 15 June, 2015

	Amended 15 June, 2015
31. AUSTRALIAN GC MEDAL COMPETITIONS The Australian GC Bronze Medal Events will be played for in each state. The winners of these events (or runners-up, if winners are not available) are expected to play in the Australian GC Gold and Silver Medal, held at the time of the Interstate Shield, at which the winner will receive the Australian GC Gold Medal and the second placed player will receive the Australian GC Silver Medal. The other four state winners will be presented with their Australian GC Bronze Medals at this time. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Conditions set down in TRegs 30.1 to 30.8 apply except that references to AC, AC Laws, AC Law 8(a) and Interstate Cup are to be read as references to GC, GC Rules, GC Rule 5(a) and Interstate Shield and that matches will be either best-of-three 13-point games (preferred) or a double round-robin of 13-point games. Rule 5(c) applies to best-of-three game matches but in round-robins each game is a separate match, Rule 5(a) applies and there is a toss before every game 2. The Australian GC Gold and Silver Medal is a three day seeded event played under similar conditions to the GC Bronze Medal competition except that a triple round robin of 13-point games is played. For the avoidance of doubt, in round-robins each game is a separate match, Rule 5(a) applies and there is a toss before every game. 	31.
